

RBS Honors Associate Volunteerism with $50K in Donations

October 17, 2022

On Friday, more than 400 associates from Retail Business Services and ADUSA Supply Chain companies spent an estimated 1,200 volunteer hours serving local communities, volunteering at soup kitchens, packing cans at food banks and even working in community gardens – in the rain – as part of an annual Day of Service. To honor associates' service and care, Retail Business Services and ADUSA Supply Chain teamed up to donate $50,000 to the 18 nonprofits served.

Non-profits that received donations include:

Quincy, Mass.

Revision Urban Farm

Boston Living Center

Quincy Interfaith Services

Community Servings

Salisbury, N.C.

Loaves & Fishes

Second Harvest Food Bank of Metrolina

Rowan Helping Ministries

Roof Above

Carlisle, Pa.

Bridge Bleacher Project

Salvation Army

United Way of Central Pa.

Scarborough, Maine

The Good Shepherd Food Bank

Preble Street

Greenville, S.C.

Harvest Hope

Chicago

Pilsen Food Pantry

Landover, Md.

Maryland Food Bank

Capital Area Food Bank

The event and donation were part of Retail Business Services RBS Cares community engagement program. Founded on the premise that service is part of the culture of Retail Business Services, the program provides opportunities for associates to engage their local communities through volunteerism, pro bono work and much more. Is service part of your DNA too? Head over to our Careers page to search open roles.